Memo: Joe Lemon-Korea

Please Pray:

→ Abigail as she finishes up some schooling pursuing her Birth Professional degree. She has one more birth to attend.

→ Joseph as he pursues an engineering degree to facilitate entrance to Asia as a missionary.

→ Huge cost of travel while on furlough

→ See souls saved and people make decisions along the way

→ Housing situation in Korea...a constant need

→ Need to travel back to Korea soon

Furlough continues!

Please pray as we still need to raise a bit more support. We have worked harder this furlough than even our deputation. God has been good though. We have put on more than 50,000 miles with zero accidents. Thousands of tracts have been passed out along the way and we have really had a wonderful time, BUT we are ready to be done and return home to Korea.

Our "Beyond Ministry" still continues!

We are very much still pushing forward with our effort to reach, teach, and train "displaced Koreans." There are a couple very time sensitive needs that we could use specific prayer for. If the Lord should direct you to help with this, please contact me for more details. As most of you know, I do not share specifics here, but please feel free to inquire.

Sowing as we go...

We have heard many times since we have been back that "people just aren't responsive to the Gospel anymore." However, the Lord has truly blessed with many personal decisions in churches along the way. I have made the recommendation in preaching several times that America isn't the same country as it was 10 years ago, so we all may need to go into "missionary mode" here. I mean, learn the language, culture, habits etc...continue to learn about the "native" people...while not compromising the Doctrine of God.

Titus 2:10 Not purloining, but shewing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things.

Thank you all once again for standing by our side through your prayer and support here on the furlough trail,

Joe, Kristin, Abigail, Joseph jr., Jonathan, Vivian, Joshua, Jonah, and Jesse
